

SERIES PG

General Service Pumps

MEGGA Series PG pumps are premium quality general service units designed for handling a variety of utility applications. These rugged pumps are available in portable, permanent and mobile versions for industrial, commercial, municipal, agricultural and residential services. For a practical, reliable and economical solution to everyday pumping requirements, turn to MEGGA Series PG to do the job.

FEATURES:

Variety of pump types including close-coupled and frame mounted electric driven standard and self-priming centrifugals, engine driven self-priming dewatering and trash handling centrifugals, electric and engine driven single diaphragm pumps, vertical immersion centrifugals and hand operated pumps.

Heavy duty quality construction in an economical package.

Available materials of construction include aluminum, cast iron, stainless steel, high chromium iron and non-metallic.

Frame mounted units are designed for use with flexible shaft couplings and industry standard motors.

Close-coupled electric drive units feature industry standard motors and simple reliability in a compact economical package in all popular voltages and motor enclosures.

Engine driven pumps are fitted with standard commercially available quality engines such as Tecumseh, Briggs & Stratton and Honda with a variety of popular options such as electric start, oil alert and cart mounting.

Close-coupled standard centrifugals.

Frame mounted standard centrifugals.

Self-priming centrifugals.

Solids handling self-primers.

Distributed by: